

Edmonton Rhythmic Gymnastics: Fun and Friends

- ◆ Non-competitive programs provide a fun activity that combines creative and musical expressions with physical activity. The basic techniques of rhythmic movement are taught with an emphasis on group interaction.
- ◆ No previous movement experience is required. Short movement combinations are performed to music with apparatus such as ribbon, hoop, ball and rope.
- ◆ Equipment costs are minimal – a black long sleeve legless leotard and either bare feet or gymnastics/ballet slippers.
- ◆ Classes are once a week for 25 weeks.
- ◆ Schools must occasionally make adjustments to our booking to accommodate school functions, so the ending dates are not definite until the schools have established their requirements.
- ◆ Registrations are accepted in the order in which they are received, and must be complete to be accepted: i.e. registration form filled out completely and signed, and full payment either in one cheque or your complete series of post-dated cheques.

The club requires one month notice before the gymnast pulls out of the program to receive her postdated cheques back. The first month's cheque is non-refundable.

Performing Programs

Programs are offered for children, teenagers and adults who are ready for more concentrated training in rhythmic gymnastics. Participants are chosen based on previous movement and/or RG experience and coach's recommendation. After placement in a class, there is a three-week trial period. Times and fees vary with classes.

Competitive Programs

Competitive programs involve a wide range of competitive classes from the Club level right up to the National level. Gymnasts are trained in flexibility, strength and apparatus control in preparation for competition.

Judit Bercz is our Head Coach who oversees all rhythmic gymnastics programs and determines which program and level is suited to the individual gymnast. Times and fees vary with levels.

Upcoming Events

This year Edmonton Rhythmic Gymnastics is proud to be hosting our Winter Show in December, our Spring Show in April, and our 2009 Rhythmic Gala in February. Dates TBA.

Edmonton Rhythmic Gymnastics

The programs of ERG stress excellence in both the non-competitive and competitive aspects of the sport of rhythmic gymnastics. We have over 150 gymnasts in levels of our sport, from ages 4 yrs to adult. Our members have represented Edmonton, Alberta and Canada in regional, national and international events and competitions.

- ◆ Our Competitive gymnasts earned top rankings within their respective categories. We are very proud that three gymnasts from our club qualified this year for Elite Canada held in Edmonton and five competitors qualified for the 2008 Canadian National Championships held in Montreal.
- ◆ Edmonton Rhythmic Gymnastic club is the only club in the province to have gymnasts qualify to compete at the World Championships. Edmonton Rhythmics is the only club in Alberta to have achieved excellence at this international level.
- ◆ Twelve members of our Adult and Performing Groups have qualified to travel to World Gymnaestrada in Austria - an outstanding celebration of gymnastics with 20,000 participants from around the world.
- ◆ Edmonton Rhythmic Gymnastics employs only qualified coaches, and is affiliated with both Rhythmic Gymnastics Alberta and Gymnastics Canada Gymnastique. We are a registered non-profit organization.

The Prism Program

Skill development is recognized through the Prism Program. As the child learns, she can earn the rainbow pin and the six other coloured pins in this fun and rewarding program.

Edmonton Rhythmic Gymnastics

2008 - 2009 Season

Rhythmic Gymnastics is a beautiful Olympic Sport, which combines the beauty of expressive movement with the visual excitement of colourful apparatus.

As hoops spin, balls bounce & ribbons twirl, both participants and audience alike are absorbed in the thrill of this dynamic sport!
